Dear Jim,

I would like to take this opportunity to extend to you personal thanks for your outstanding presentation to the Battalion on Friday, 28 September 01.

The Army and our families benefit from those individuals like yourself who get involved and offer their assistance to those around them. Your presentation exemplifies and reinforces the current Army values campaign, and is a strong message that needs to be heard.

The entire Battalion and I are deeply appreciative of your effort and are better soldiers because of your contribution. Again, my personal thanks.
